

As an active freelance musician, Amy O'Neill has been performing and teaching in southwestern Ontario for over seventeen years. A native of the London area, she was accepted on scholarship and obtained her Bachelor of Music (Hons.) from the University of Western Ontario, where she is now on Faculty. Specializing in Classical and Irish music, Amy plays piccolo, flute, alto flute and Irish flute, and performs regularly in orchestras, pit orchestras, Irish sessions and various small ensembles, including her Classical flute/harp/violin trio, Silver & Strings, and her traditional Irish group, eolas ("OH-IASS"). Amy often appears as a clinician with schools and community music groups.

Born and raised in Strathroy, ON, Jennifer Baetz was accepted on scholarship to UWO, where she earned her B.Mus. degree and performance diploma. She studied privately with Sharon Kahan and was coached by Anne Thompson, Fiona Wilkinson, Kevin McMillan, and John Hess. Jennifer has taught for Conservatory Canada and led Kindermusik classes and continues to teach in her home studio. She is an active freelance musician, performing with Orchestra London, the Windsor Symphony, the Huron Country Playhouse and the Stratford Civic Orchestra. Jennifer is also a former member of the Light of East Ensemble, a Middle Eastern folk group and plays as part of the Harmonie Duo with guitarist Kevin Love.
